- *The Library parking lot is intended for use by Library patrons and employees only while engaged in Library activities, or by people using the buggy shed or EV charger. All other uses are prohibited.
- *Out of concern for the safety of young patrons, adults who are in the children's area of the Library and unaccompanied by a child or children may be asked to move to another area of the Library.
- *When advised, e.g. during a pandemic, face covering and physical distancing will be required. Only patrons with medical conditions that do not allow for face coverings are exempt. Other safety measures may be implemented.
- *Using skates, skateboards, scooters or athletic equipment in the Library or on library grounds is prohibited.
- *Parking bicycles or scooters in non-designated areas is prohibited.

8.2 Suspension of Library Privileges

Library employees reserve the right to intervene and clarify rules (give warnings) when the comfort and safety of our patrons and staff and/or the integrity of the Library facility and/or grounds are compromised. Library staff may directly notify the police if they believe anyone's safety is immediately threatened. Any person not abiding by the Code of Conduct may be required to leave the Library premises. (See Section 8.2.3) Staff will not be responsible for anyone who is dismissed from the Library and/or grounds due to their behavior.

8.2.1 Behavior Deemed Immediately Unacceptable

If any Library staff members determine that a patron is exhibiting behavior that is restricted by this policy and not stopping the behavior when instructed to do so two or more times, or exhibiting behavior that is illegal, dangerous to others, destructive to any property, or is so disruptive that it is immediately unacceptable, they may dismiss the patron from the Library property. Law enforcement will be contacted for illegal behavior and/or if the patron refuses to leave after being told to do so. Staff will fill out an Incident Report. (See Appendix Q.) When applicable, the Executive Director will follow through with the suspension of library privileges process (See section 8.2.3 below).

8.2.2 Ongoing Violations of the Code of Conduct

Using their discretion, if any Library staff member determines that a patron is currently or over time continually violating the code of conduct and not stopping the restricted behavior when instructed to do so, they will fill out Incident Reports. (See Appendix Q.) When applicable, the Executive Director will follow through with the suspension of library privileges process (See section 8.2.3 below).

8.2.3 Suspension of Library Privileges Process

At the discretion of the Executive Director, any patron, including students being tutored, not abiding by the PYPL Code of Conduct either by exhibiting Behavior Deemed Immediately Unacceptable (one incident) or behavior that is an Ongoing Violation of the Code of Conduct (2 or more incidents) may be banned from the premises. A written notification (See Appendix I.) of the banning from the premises will be sent by certified mail to the address on record for the patron by the Director. The length of time of the banning, also at the discretion of the Executive Director, will depend on the severity of the incident(s).

8.2.4 Suspension of Library Privileges Process for Youth Patrons as carried out by Youth Services Staff

In the interest of helping youthful patrons to learn how to use PYPL without violating the code of conduct, the Youth Services Department will carry out the following process.

- -First violation: Two verbal warnings will be given to the youth patron by the Youth Services Staff. The youth patron will be informed that any subsequent violation will result in suspension from the premises.
- -Second violation: After the two immediate warnings or an additional warning at a subsequent visit, the youth patron may be suspended from the premises for one day (24 hours). Youth Services staff will fill out an incident report (See Appendix Q.) and submit it to the to the Executive Director.
- -Third violation: After a 24-hour suspension, if a youth patron continues to violate the Code of Conduct at a subsequent visit to PYPL, Youth Services staff members may suspend their library privileges for seven days. Youth Services staff will fill out an incident report and submit it to the Executive Director. The Youth Services staff may notify the youth's parent/guardian by email or /phone.
- -Fourth violation: After a seven-day suspension, if a youth patron continues to violate the Code of Conduct at a subsequent visit(s) to PYPL, the Suspension of Library Privileges Process will be implemented for a longer banning from the premises. (See section 8.2.3.)

8.2.5 Returning after Suspension of Library Privileges

If the suspended patron chooses to return to the Library once the suspension period has expired, he or she must abide by the Code of Conduct and the Computer Use policies. Any future violations may result in a progressively longer suspension. Returning to library premises prior to the end of one's suspension is an act of trespassing and will result in staff contacting local law enforcement.

8.2.6 Appealing Suspension of Library Privileges

Patrons have the right to appeal a suspension of Library privileges to the Library Board in writing within 10 days of the written notification of the suspension being sent by certified mail. The Library Board will consider the suspension decision based on whether or not the suspension conforms to the criteria set forth in this policy at their next regular meeting.

8.3 Unattended and Disruptive Children/Youth

Penn Yan Public Library welcomes and encourages children to use materials and services. As libraries are essential to the lives of children, we strive to provide useful, safe and inviting spaces for youth.

However, neither the Library nor its staff members act in loco parentis (in place of parents). The Library is a public facility which is open to everyone, and parents and caregivers are expected to accompany children in need of supervision on Library visits to ensure the safety and well-being of the children. At all times, whether they are present or not, parents/caregivers are responsible for their child's behavior, safety, and supervision. If an unattended child in need of supervision is being disruptive, the Suspension of Library Privileges process will be implemented (See Section 8.2.)

The library is not a substitute for child care or after school care. The library is not equipped- and it is not the library's role- to provide long or short-term care or supervision. Children under the age of 10 must be accompanied by a caregiver at least 13 years of age.

If an unattended child in need of supervision appears to be lost or is waiting for a parent or caregiver at closing, the library staff will attempt to locate the parent or caregiver. If the parents or caregivers cannot be located, the child may be placed in the care of a local law enforcement agency.

The Library and its staff will not, under any circumstances, be responsible for determining whether an apparent caregiver, custodian or parent is a legally authorized caregiver, custodian or custodial parent of the child. Library staff will not be responsible if unattended children of any age leave the library alone or with other persons.

The Penn Yan Public Library is released from any and all liability with regard to this policy. Parents, guardians, and caregivers acknowledge the risk of leaving a child unattended in the Library and release Penn Yan Public Library from all claims which they may have or which they may have on behalf of their child/ward.

8.4 Restrooms

- Patrons will observe all applicable rules outlined in the Code of Conduct section of the general policy when using the restrooms.
- Restroom use is limited to reasonable time periods to allow for their use by all patrons and staff with minimal wait time.
- Unreasonable use of the restrooms, including bathing, shaving, and laundering of clothes is prohibited.
- Loitering in the restrooms is prohibited.
- Engaging in sexual activity, contact, assault, or any act of lewdness or exposure, in

- the restrooms is prohibited.
- Library staff may check the restrooms given reasonable suspicion of behavior violating library policy.
- Patrons observed violating the Code of Conduct in the restrooms may have their Library privileges suspended.

Patrons and employees will have access to and the right to use the restroom most closely corresponding to their gender identity. Gender identity is demonstrated by a consistent assertion of the gender identity by each individual, regardless of the individual's assigned sex at birth. We affirm that each individual knows their own gender identity best, and we will not impose bathroom use restrictions on anyone on the basis of their outward gender expression. For definitions of terms related to gender used by the Library, (See Appendix P.)

September 2025 adult services report

I answered 31 reference questions for 33 patrons in September. I answered 16 tech questions, 3 legal questions and 5 local history questions. I served no Mennonite patrons last month. Interesting queries: various local queries about the West Woods, football player James Taylor, the Race family, and Samuel Hart Wright.

Approximately 193 patrons attended 18 programs in September. Nan Hoffman returned for a well-received concert held at Saint Mark's Church, which featured in the audience a folk singer from the golden age to enjoy some tunes he'd been performing since the 50s. The veteran's office presented an Operation: Save anti-suicide event. Jeannette McDunnah brought home-grown loofahs (did you know they're like big squishy cucumbers?) to make melt-and-pour soaps for Arts & Drafts. We enjoyed camp-style cooking at Potluck Club. Members of STLS brought a screening of the library documentary Free for All to PYPL, which provided an amazing insight into the history and continued relevance of public libraries. And we held our last No Shop Stuff Swap session of the season, complete with guest Hannah Farley from Cancer Services of the Finger Lakes; we had probably our best turnout all year and got the vast majority of items into people's hands, including two color printers, a shave ice maker, a hammock, and much more. All this plus yoga, knitting, family research, French, and Alzheimer's Association events.

I also launched our Banned Books Week augmented reality activity. Many of the explanatory brochures were taken throughout the month and I heard from several community members who were working on the scavenger hunt I set up with partners throughout the village!

I presented on digital library offerings at the Office for the Aging's older adults center, sharing the good news about Libby, Mango, Kanopy, and Ground News. I also attended Choose Health Yates' meeting to assess the community health implementation strategies the group has been working on.

Work on the Sustainable Finger Lakes traveling display continues.

Penn Yan Public Library Monthly Youth Services Report to Board

SEPTEMBER 2025 IN REVIEW

As is annual tradition, each September we wonder what the new crop of sixth-graders will be like when they sweep into the library after school. For the first time in many years, they are mainly doing homework. There are a few rowdy types, of course, but so far its been calm in the afternoons. Melissa and I appreciate it. There seem to be more homeschoolers this year than in previous years, and they are younger than in previous years. I am going to try offering more morning sessions for them, in all age brackets, and see what sticks. My Storytime crews have been a bit smaller lately so I may tweak those schedules as well.

We added a new community partner in September: the Keuka Comfort Care Home. It turns out that their residents and families love watching the birds, so I ran a birdseed drive and our generous patrons donated more than sixty pounds of seed, plus several bird feeders. I have already added it to my calendar to repeat next year.

This fall I will be weeding the Juvenile and Easy Fiction sections thoroughly. Both collections need it, and it is one of my annual goals, guided by the Strategic Plan. I will also be working on tracking down some grant funding to purchase books to give away during summer 2026, and bike helmets to give away at Books & Bikes Fest 2026.
