Stuffed Animal Sleepover

Monday, November 17, 6:30pm

Kids are invited to wear their PJs to the library and bring along a stuffed animal for this fun event!

After a calming storytime, kids will say goodnight to their stuffed animals, who will spend the night at the library. The children's librarian will choose a library book for each stuffed animal, which the child or parent can check out (if they choose to) when they return any time on Tuesday, November 18 to retrieve their fuzzy friend. No registration is required for this free program.
